Afternoon Service1:00 pm

The Apostle Paul tells the brethren in Philippians 2:2 to be "likeminded." That's good, God glorifying. But what does it mean: Are we suppose to look, think and act exactly the same way? Are we to find some person in the church who is to set the tone? Are we suppose to live our Christian life as a bunch of robots? The answer to these questions is clearly no. But God does insist that we be likeminded. This afternoon we will look at \what it means to be likeminded and how we can accomplish it.

Quotable: I have often regretted my speech, seldom my silence.
