Evening Service 6:00 p.m.

We hear much about love today, and it is quickly apparent that love is misunderstood. It is obvious that the world doesn't understand love, and this shouldn't shock us. The majority of the world does not know God, and "God is love." It is also obvious, but not as quickly, that the church often misunderstands love. How could this be since we know God? As we daily fight the war between the flesh and the spirit we often do not base our understanding on God's wisdom but rather on the world's wisdom. Tonight we will look at the power of love from the authority on the subject, God and His Word.

Quotable: Poise is the art of raising an eyebrow instead of the roof.

{His lovingkindness} is given by decree, bestowed by royal engagement, as He also commands "deliverances" (Ps. 44:4), "the blessing, live for evermore" (Ps. 133:3), which announces that nothing can possibly hinder these bestowments.
