3-fold distinction in studying the mercy of God: First, there is a general mercy of God, extended not only to all men, believers and unbelievers alike, but also to the entire creation: "His tender mercies are over all his works" (Ps 145:9); "He giveth to all life, and breath, and all things" (Ac 17:25). God has pity upon the brute creation in their needs, and supplies them with suitable provision.
