One great mark of the latter days of our world is the rise of apostate Christianity. This huge and wicked institution is introduced to us in Revelation chapter 17.

Quotable: Three essentials to happiness in this life are something to do, something to love and something to hope for.

Chuckles -
Every night a doting father would sing his two young sons to sleep, until one night he overheard the 4-year-old telling the 2-year-old, "If you pretend you're asleep, he'll stop."

The class assignment was to write a short paper on "Things I am Thankful for." One fourth-grade boy put first, "My glasses. They keep the boys from punching me and the girls from kissing me."

The merits of Christ made it possible for God to righteously bestow spiritual mercies on His elect, justice having been fully satisfied by the Surety! No, mercy arises solely from God's imperial pleasure.
