In Revelation 18, John continues in his exposure of the demise of the coming apostate Christian church. There are those like the opponents of Jeremiah who would say, "Don't preach this—it disheartens the people of God." However, like Jeremiah, we must speak the truth.

Quotable: When all is said and done, there's way too much said and not enough done.

Punishment of the wicked is to be contemplated from a threefold viewpoint. From God's side, it is an act of justice, vindicating His honor. The mercy of God is never shown to the prejudice of His holiness and righteousness.
