Evening Service...... 6:00 p.m.

Time-what is it? Where did it come from? Is it important? What are its limitations? What should we do with it? Tonight we will ask these questions, among others, of time. Scripture gives us much information about time and does not remain silent on how it is to be used. As with all of life, we must apply Scripture to time.

Quotable: A man of words and not of deeds is like a garden full of weeds.

Dear Praying Friends,

First of all, we wish you all a Happy Thanksgiving. We took some time today (Thursday) to think of God's blessings in our lives over the past year. We truly have many things to be thankful for. And you, as our supporters, are on that lengthy list. We know that our continuance in the ministry here depends on your under-girding. We not only praise the Lord for you, we also pray for you. We know that these are difficult times for many of you. But we know that you will be able to find many things to thank the Lord for in this special season.

We are writing to ask for prayer for this Sunday evening (which will be about your bedtime on Saturday night). We are planning on showing part of the "God of Wonders" video as an outreach. We have invited guite a few people. Our church folk are inviting people, too. And I will also give a short message on Psalm 8:3-4 (our church verse of the month). Pray that many people will come. Pray that the unsaved who are there will be convicted of not including such a mighty God in their lives.

> Rejoicing in His goodness, Art & Deb

How many there are who say, I do not believe that God will ever cast me into hell; He is too merciful. Such a hope is a viper, which if cherished in their bosoms will sting them to death.
