Our Savior has not asked us to be simple and naive about our faith. He has rather instructed us to be cautious and particular. One of His warnings about this is found in His "Sermon on the Mount".

Quotable: People may doubt what you say, but they will always believe what you do.

*God is angry against sin because it is a rebelling against His authority, a wrong done to His inviolable sovereignty. Insurrectionists against God's government shall be made to know that God is the Lord. They shall be made to feel how great that Majesty is which they despise, and how dreadful is that threatened wrath which they so little regarded.
From "Gleanings in the Godhead", by A.W. Pink*
