Missionary Update -

Matt & Netta Schrepfer: Valley Baptist is 6 years old, their first service was held on Nov. 19, 2006; they are saving toward the cost of construction for their own building on the property along Hwy 93, amount needed is more than 10 times the amt. in their building fund; 5 souls recently trusted Christ; new family moved here from Idaho and is a welcomed addition to their church family; the Kluver family has moved to Washington State and are part of a mission church in Port Angeles; son, Aron has recently resigned as associate pastor in Kansas City, MO, pray for God's direction; support is about 80%; Netta has been accepted for help thru RA Research Study which will help them financially & her physically; church web site: <http://www.valleybaptisteureka.com>

*We cannot serve Him acceptably unless there is due reverence for His awful Majesty and godly fear of His righteous anger;
these are best promoted by frequently calling to mind that "our God is a consuming fire".
