As we consider the nature of the world and as we approach the coming of the Lord, we will find a good example of it in the nature of Israel prior to His first advent.

Quotable: And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart. Luke 2:17-19

Dear Bethel Family -

I am grateful for you being such good prayer warriors concerning my sister's illness and salvation. A pastor visited her in the hospital and she accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Saviour. To God be the glory. My strength has been and is in believing that His grace is sufficient for any difficulty that life brings my way. Pam died at home peacefully Dec. 26.

Your Friends in Him,
Trish and Mike

He was "amazed, and very heavy" (Mk 14:33). His awful agony, His bloody sweat, His strong cries and supplications (Heb 5:7), His repeated prayers, "If it be possible, let this cup pass from me," His last dreadful cry, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" all manifest what fearful apprehensions He had of what it was for God to "mark iniquities."
