Evening Service..... 6:00 pm

In this evening's service we will continue to conclude our short study of the book of Malachi. The book serves as a clear reminder of our place in a fallen world and that God observes our faithfulness to Him and is faithful Himself to give His children an exceeding great reward.

Quotable: A keen sense of humor helps us to overlook the unbecoming, understand the unconventional, tolerate the unpleasant, overcome the unexpected and outlast the unbearable.

Horizons, Adult SS Paper -

Lisa (Brammer) Bolton is the author of today's SS paper. The article gives much food for thought.

Missionary Update -

Art & Deb Brammer, New Zealand through this year the Lord has blessed & given their church growth and more stability, a family of 6 has moved there from So. Africa, a psychiatrist from the US, a pediatrician from Canada and a lady who was recently saved, all have been attending on a regular basis, giving has increased and they are now able to meet their financial obligations, they are still stretched for core people to work & help, but see some encouraging signs of growth in the lives of a number of people, they are thankful for what the Lord is doing:

From this contemplation of [God's] attributes, it should be evident to us all that God is, first, an incomprehensible Being; and, lost in wonder at His infinite greatness, we adopt the words of Zophar, "Canst thou by searching find out God? Canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection? It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? Deeper than hell; what canst thou know? (Job 11:7-8).
