Evening Service.....6:00 pm

We hire our military and law enforcement to protect us from our enemies and evil. We purchase health, life, auto, and identity insurance to protect against the troubles of life. We carry guns and bear spray to ward off attack. We make rules and boundaries for our children to keep them safe. Protection is much on our minds. Tonight we will look at the practical implications of the ultimate protection: God and His Word.

Quotable: A wise man does not grieve for the things he has not, but rejoices for the things which he has.

Missionary Update -

Roger & Marcy Smith, Brazil: returned to the field Oct. 22; good report about Koinonia Baptist during their absence, folks are united and spiritual growth has been seen in the lives of their youth leadership team, couple's ministry is rethinking how to better reach couples, attendance has fallen a bit; Roger broke his collarbone while trail biking and is wearing a brace, surgery was not needed; more news and pictures posted on their blog:

Missionary Prayer Band Need -

Can you help? This month Missionary Prayer Ladies are making mittens for the homeless. We would welcome any left-over remnants of fleece that you could give us for this project. Please give to Doris M. or Doris H. Thank you.

*But the incomprehensibility of the divine nature is no reason why we should desist from reverent inquiry and prayerful striving to apprehend what He has so graciously revealed of Himself in His Word.
