The process of conversion is something that has become increasingly interesting to me. It seems from Psalm 32 that it begins with conviction and guilt, not some hope for a better life. This has implications on how we present the Gospel!

When Moses besought Jehovah for a sight of His glory, He answered him, "I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee" (Exodus 33:19); as another has said, "the name is the collection of His attributes." From "Gleanings in the Godhead", by A.W. Pink
