I think we may say with confidence that one matter that was often the subject of Paul's attention was his concern that he would not be ashamed. This afternoon we will examine what it was that would cause Paul to be ashamed.

Quotable: He is not here: for He is risen as He said. Matt. 28:6a

Missionary Update -

Rick & Gayle McLain, Brazil: the Bereia congregation has organized into a church, electing 3 deacons & voting on the constitution, forming committees, a good co-operative spirit is among them, organizing w/ 40 members, an encouragement to them as a few years ago the work was started with only the McLains in attendance; the Saturday morning children's Bible Club has become an AWANA club, they are grateful for leaders needed to carry out this ministry; Pastor Evanio & his wife, Ada, will oversee the work to allow Rick & Gayle to come to the states for furlough ministry this year, they have 2 young daughters; Rick has a Thurs. afternoon men's Bible study each week; more news and updates on their website: rickgaylemclain.com

*When the Triune God existed all alone, He was all to Himself.
 His understanding, His love, His energies, found an adequate object in Himself. Had He stood in need of anything external, He had not been independent, and therefore would not have been God.*
