Men's Retreat: Fri-Sat, May 17-18, at Camp

Missionary Update -

Matt & Netta Schrepfer: 16 year-old Brett and their granddaughter, Katie accepted Christ in December; Aron & Rebekah (son & daughter-in-law) have moved to Eureka, they are between ministries, looking for a church that needs a senior pastor; they are involved in visitation and in volunteer positions in the community; Matt & Netta are in AK this month to report to supporting churches there, & have about 20 preaching or speaking opportunities; support is about 80%; Netta has been receiving infusions for RA through a clinical study for about 10 months & is starting to notice a change in her right elbow (she can bend it!); youngest son, Levi & wife Rachel are expecting their 1st in Aug./Sept; church web site:

To Bethel Baptist Church -

Thank you for allowing us to present our burden for the Ojibway Peoples to your church. Thanks you very much for the privilege of staying in your mission house, we really appreciated it.

The Moirs

He [God] demands the allegiance and services of His intelligent creatures, yet He derives no benefit from their offices, all the advantage redounds to themselves (job 22:2-3).
