Please inquire at the Bulletin Table.

Evening Service..... 6:00 pm

God accomplishes His business by assigning it to people. Paul reflects on this principle in the last half of Philippians, chapter two. This reality calls for the necessity of humble service and honor.

Quotable: I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

Camp Scholarships -

We give our youth who are planning to go to camp the opportunity to earn their way by memorizing verses. Funds are available as we give to the 'Camp Scholarship' Fund here at Bethel. As you give to this fund, we are able to provide these scholarships. Thank you!

Missionary Update-

Roger & Marcy Smith: they have found a place to rent in the Outback city of Arcoverde, from a man who came to Christ thru Carlos a few years back, the building will need to be finished & equipped; good report on 4 night Easter Play, had a full house each night; baptism for new believers set for May 19 at Koinonia, have seen growth in their attendance; more news and pictures posted on their blog: <http://missionoutbackbrazil.blogspot.com>.

God is just and good,
and ever does that which is right.
Nevertheless, He exercises His sovereignty
according to His own imperial and righteous pleasure.
