A mis-directed church. It is possible, it is historical, it is common. The issue with the Galatian churches had to do with the acquisition of Christian characteristics -- "...having begun in the Spirit are ye now made perfect by the works of the flesh?"

Quotable: You make a living by what you get, you make a life by what you give.

*Love unmeasured, that passes knowledge, fills our lives with its unceasing ministrations, ever active in priesthood and advocacy on high, how truly it is love abundant.
