Our faith needs to rest on solid ground. Early in Galatians, Paul spends a lot of ink teaching us about the history and authority of the gospel. True faith rests on facts!

Consider now His confidences. The Lord Jesus said to his disciples, "Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you" (John 15:15).
