This evening we will finish Matthew 10. We will return to verse twenty-three and look at its implications. We will also examine the hard statements found at the end of this chapter. We will certainly recognize that God's thoughts are not our thoughts, and that His ways are not our ways (Isaiah 55.8).

Quotable: Generally, the criticizer is worse than the criticized.

Some Thoughts on Faith -

O, Lord, help me to understand that you ain't gwine to let nuthin' come my way that you and me together can't handle.

Don't tell me that worry doesn't do any good. I know better. The things I worry about don't happen.

Are your troubles causing you to lose your religion or use your religion?

Missionary Update -

Art & Deb Brammer: just started the Christianity Explained Bible studies w/ 3 people in 3 separate groups, pray for an understanding and acceptance for these 3 (each has complex issues in their lives), pray also for wisdom as Brammers lead them; Deb also teaches 2 young mothers, & Art teaches a neighbor the I Survived! Bible study, a study looking at 5 Bible characters who survived disasters; Hadleys arrive within the month to fill in for them while they are on a 4 month furlough, Nov. '13 thru March '14, pray for their adjustment to New Zealand life and this ministry, pray also for Art & Deb during this month before leaving on furlough, there is much to be done before furlough begins

> It is one thing to know, intellectually, of these bounties of God; it is quite another, by faith, to make them our own. It is one thing to be familiar with the letter of them; it is another to live in their power and be the personal expression of them. From "Gleanings in the Godhead", by A.W. Pink
