Evening Service ..... 6:00 pm

Understanding the root and foundational issues of our faith must not be taken lightly. It was the departure from this that gave rise to the book of Galatians and some extensive arguments from the Apostle Paul.

Quotable: God often entrusts us with a little in order to see what we would do with a lot.

Take a minute to sign the new cards on the table at the back of the auditorium for our missionaries; they really enjoy receiving birthday and anniversary greetings from Bethel.

Missionary Update -

Glenn & Karen Gardiner, PEI: new Sr. pastor of Emmanuel Baptist church has been on the scene for several months, relieving Glenn from some responsibilities, Glenn still has chapel responsibilities, overseeing students & is continuing to minister in various churches in Atlantic Canada as his schedule allows; the Moirs are on deputation as well as another missionary couple, both are graduates of the Institute and serving with BMM

Apples of Gold on Meekness -

Discussion is an exchange of knowledge: argument is an exchange of ignorance. Some husbands know all the answers. They've been listening for years. Never forget that you are a part of the people who can be fooled some of the time. Teach thy tongue to say, 'I do not know.'
 There is nothing permanent but change.
 Past experience should be a guide post, not a hitching post.
 There's nothing wrong with being a self-made man if you don't consider the job finished too soon.

*If God speaks so uniformly of the varied character of our blessing
—whether it be His grace, His love, His life imparted to us, His confidences, His power, His mercy (1 Pet. 1:3 ff)—as being so abundant, it must be because He wants to impress our hearts with the exuberance of the bounties He has bestowed on us.
From "Gleanings in the Godhead", by A.W. Pink*
