Sometimes I wonder how much of what we believe, we really believe. There is a gospel principle that is uniquely powerful that I fear is little believed and applied. We will examine that from the first portion of Galatians, chapter four.

Quotable: And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them be the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart. Luke 2:17-19

Missionary Update -
Mark & Jenn Rubin, Chile: there is much violence around Sept. 11 due to a military coup that installed dictator Augusto Pinochet 40 years ago, about ¼ mile from their house is a rough neighborhood that is one of the centers for violence, police officers were injured and there was much protesting and disturbance, but one week later (Sept. 18) is Independence Day, patriotism is very noticeable, transformation by Christ is also noticeable despite much unrest, continue to pray for open doors to announce the only hope the world can know: Jesus Christ crucified, risen and living at the right hand of the Father.

The Son is God's all-inclusive gift. As Manton said, "Christ cometh not to us empty handed: His person and His benefits are not divided. He came to purchase all manner of blessings for us." The greatest of these is the Holy Spirit, who applies and communicates what the Lord Jesus obtained for His people.
