Our new life in Christ is not something that finds its source in personal discipline. It is a remarkable change that comes by faith. A key word from Galatians chapter four, is "Blessedness".

Quotable: The things that glorify Christ are all in Christ. The Holy Spirit brings nothing from abroad, but takes of the things of Christ and shows them to us. The glory of kings lies in there silver and gold, their silk and gems; but the glory of Christ lies in Himself.
Charles Spurgeon

Clean Team -

Our fellowship hall is being used this Friday morning from 9:30 am-12:00 noon.

God pardoned and justified His elect in Old Testament times on the ground of the atonement, which His Son should make at the appointed time. On the same basis He communicated to them the Spirit, otherwise none would have been regenerated, fitted for communion with God, or enabled to bring forth spiritual fruit.
