Evening Service..... 6:00 pm

It wasn't just Satan that attempted to bait Jesus. The Pharisees often employed the same tactic of their "father." Our next stop in our "Red-Letter Series" brings us to just such an occasion. They asked Jesus about divorce. It seems that this was a touchy subject during Jesus' time, as it is in ours. It is important to understand and heed what Jesus taught on this subject.

Quotable: Does your life shed light or cast shadows?

Update -
 Don and Denise would like to thank everyone for their love, prayers and cards. Denise is progressing very well and is looking forward to seeing you on her return. We anticipate her return to be mid-March as of right now. Her new address is Lititz House Bed and Breakfast, 301 N Broad St., Lititz, PA 17543. If you would like to call, her cell phone # is 253-3363 (not long distance).

Missionary Update -
 Glenn & Karen Gardiner, PEI: In January Glenn spoke out on the east end of PEI at a former BMM work without a pastor; is teaching a Christology class, having 3 upper class students who participate well; also has several speaking engagements to prepare for and travel to, pray for traveling mercies especially in winter conditions. Karen has the women's responsibilities, also things for EBBI especially with the girls dorm. Were able to be with their children and families in Pennsylvania for Christmas. Glenn has been witnessing to 3 men at the coffee shop. Pray for Eugene, asking pertinent questions regarding God and salvation.

Bible Memory -

Mark 4:40-41

Clean Team -

Our fellowship hall is being used this Friday morning from 9:30 am-12:00 noon.
