Missionary Update -

Luke & Lisa Bolton: after completion of their year internship in China they have returned to the States; Luke has returned to Central Baptist Theological Seminary to continue his MDiv studies, and they've returned to All Nations Baptist Church, they anticipate living in Minneapolis maybe 4-5 years, and as the Lord allows to go back to China for long-term ministry in the future

Updates -

Pauline's surgery went well, heart valve was replaced, Betty Trankle was hospitalized earlier this week, had gal bladder surgery and is feeling better; both are home now.

The salvation of God does not actually become ours until we believe in, rest upon, and receive Christ as a personal Saviour. But as we cannot see without both sight and light, neither can we believe until life and faith are divinely communicated to us.
