Missionary Update -

Rick & Gayle McLain, Brazil: they have been helping Evandro & Erica with the construction of their home and church building in Quatro Bocas, they "lent" a work crew to help with finishing the project in a timely fashion, one of the workers is not saved, pray as he is around other believers on the crew; the new VW bus has been purchased; an executive decision concerning the seminary program for next year must be made, pray for wisdom in making the decision and wisdom in knowing how to approach the Brazilian pastors about the matter; they are working on maintenance issues at the seminary: old septic tanks & wind damage on the roof of the building housing the dining room, kitchen and girl's dorm; more pictures and updates on their website: rickgaylemclain.com

*The very faith which receives a gratuitous salvation is not the unassisted act of man's own will.
As God must give me breath before I can breathe, so faith ere I believe.*
