Evening Service..... 6:00 pm

Have you ever heard the expression "straining at a gnat?" Tonight, as we continue our "Red Letter" series, we will find this expression in its context. Jesus identifies the marks of a "Pharisee" and pronounces "woe" to those who practice phariseism. This term is often used in Christianity today to mark anyone who stands for something dogmatically. We will look at what Jesus has to say on the matter.

Quotable: Think twice before saying an unkind word, then don't say it.

 Mark & Jennifer Rubin, Chile: in March school & church ministries resumed, and are in full swing; they are in their 3rd year of ministry at Living Hope Baptist Church, Mark is teaching a new adult SS class on Ecclesiology, also involved in a new men's ministry, Jennifer is teaching the 7-9 year olds; the seminary began a new academic year March 3, Mark is teaching 2 undergrad courses and heavily involved in administration and the ongoing development of the Masters Program; Jennifer is again serving as First Grade teacher at the MK school, & has 15 students, 3 speak very little English; pray for them as they carry out these responsibilities along with parenting their 4 children and being the husband and wife that God would have them to be

Bible Memory -
 Acts 5:29

It would do a traveler little good to diligently scrutinize the mechanism of a lamp, or to admire its beautiful design. Rather he is to take it up and make a practical use of it.
