Bible Memory -

This week's passage is 2 Corinthians 9:6-7.

Missionary Update -

Steve & Tina Prelgovisk, Puerto Rico: this week marks the end of their short furlough and they will be returning to Puerto Rico; Steve served as our evening chapel speaker last week at Jr. girl's camp, showing the girls through teaching of the Word and object lessons in the way of scientific experiments how to fill their lives with Christ and not let other things crowd Him out; Tina served as our head cook, something that was very natural for her as she cooks for 50-75 daily at Puerto Rico Baptist College where Steve teaches; they are a little short in their support needs, please pray that the Lord will raise the amount needed; check out his blog for interesting articles, pictures, videos and happenings:

*By nature we are totally ignorant of His will for us and of what promotes our highest interests. It is solemn and humbling that man is the only creature born into this world devoid of intelligence as to how to act, and who needs to be taught what is evil and what is good for him.
From "Gleanings in the Godhead", by A.W. Pink*
