Missionary Update -

Rick & Gayle McLain, Brazil: Saturday mornings host the Children's Bible Club, along with the calling program and music classes at seminary in the afternoon and young people's meeting in the evening, ladies' & men's Bible studies are on Thursdays; they have had several robberies and burglars tried to get into the church and a house on campus a few months ago; they are very appreciative of the new Volkswagen van and it is being put to good use; planning a furlough with Evandro & Erica & family for April through Sept. to visit supporting churches in California

It should be obvious that the first need of the Christian is not to delve into the intricacies and mysteries of Scripture, study the prophecies, not entertain himself with the wonderful types therein. Rather he needs to concentrate on what will instruct him as to the kind of conduct which will be pleasing to the Lord..
