Evening Service..... 6:00 pm

As we continue our study, Dust to Dominion, we will return to the life of the first man, Adam. We all know the story of Adam's sin and the consequences placed upon God's creation. What about the rest of his life? Are there lessons to learn from Adam's life outside of the Garden?

Quotable: The heart has reasons that reason does not understand.

FAMILY MATTERS

Coming Up -
MRBF Annual Bible Conference: Fri-Sat., Oct 3-4, hosted by First Baptist, Whitefish, speaker: Dr. Larry Oats, Dean of Maranatha Baptist Seminary, 'Liberty and Legalism: Is There a Balance?'; please sign up for the Fri. evening meal.

Bible Memory -
 This week's passage is 1 Thessalonians 5:14 - "Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men."

Update on Scott and Susan Sloan -
 This past June marked 15 years that the Sloans have been serving in Fruitland, UT. They have seen the church there go through some good times and some bad times, and have been through 2 building projects. However, both Scott & Susan believe that their ministry there is finished. They have received and accepted a call from Maranatha Baptist Church, Cedar Springs, MI and officially began their ministry as Pastor and wife there Sept.1. Continue to pray for the church in Fruitland and for Sloans as they get settled in Cedar Springs.

*"If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world' (Jn 11:9). To walk in the day means to be in communion with One who is Light, to conduct ourselves according to His revealed will. Just so far as the Christian walks in the path of duty, as defined for him in the word, will he walk surely and comfortably.
