Tonight we will begin our next character sketch in our series Dust to Dominion. If you have ever rented a U-Haul truck and moved on down the road, you may be able to relate with our next character. More importantly, can you relate with our next character being called "a friend of God"? Why was this man identified as a friend of God? What can we learn from his life so that we can be known as a friend of God?

Quotable: Temper, if ungoverned, governs the whole man.

Missionary Update -

Steve & Tina Prelgovisk, CBM, Puerto Rico: returned to Puerto Rico in early August after furlough ministry; they've started an AWANA Program in their church (Oansa, in Portuguese), a woman (who was studying with some Jehovah Witnesses, and noticed some discrepancies in her own Bible reading) stopped in to ask questions, brought her son to the next meeting and stayed to hear the devotional; a man who has been coming for about a month and made a profession of faith was recently baptized; they are a little short in their support needs, please pray that the Lord will raise the amount needed; check out his blog for interesting articles, pictures, videos and happenings on the field:

Christ cannot be followed until self is denied and the cross accepted as the distinguishing mark of discipleship.

What does it mean to deny self? It means to repudiate our own goodness, to renounce our own wisdom, to have no confidence in our own strength, to completely set aside our own will and wishes, that we should not hence forth live unto our selves, but unto[Him] who died for us (2 Cor. 5:15).
