Missionary Update -

Roger & Marcy Smith, ABWE, Brazil: inauguration of the new Resource Center in Arcoverde was a blessing, the center will be a place of Bible study and training as well as a place where area churches can borrow resources to enrich their ministries, there are still needs, but the ball is rolling to present the ministry and to begin offering what they can; David & Sarah Carrel are the latest addition to their field team, living in Arcoverde and helping Koinonia with the Resource Center while laying a foundation for church planting in the outback more news and pictures posted on their blog: <http://missionoutbackbrazil.blogspot.com>

Deb Brammer's Book Offer -

Amazon is offering Deb's book Edges of Truth for Kindle at a reduced price June 21-26, with cheapest prices early in the promotion. Also Art and Deb's companion Bible study book, I Survived!, is free on Kindle for five days. More details are posted on the bulletin board.

Animals and birds do not have to be taught which herbs and berries are poisonous; they need no curbs upon them not to overeat or over drink—you cannot even force a horse or a cow to gorge and make itself sick. Even plants turn their faces to the light and open their mouths to catch the falling rain.
